Welcome

The Know Your Chicago Committee takes great pleasure in welcoming you to our 66th season of civic engagement with the Chicago community. Founded in 1948 by Mary Ward Wolkonksy, Know Your Chicago strives to foster understanding and appreciation of the complexity, diversity, and richness inherent in this great American city.

We’re excited for you to join us for a day of lectures and presentations on some of the most pressing social and political concerns in the city and beyond. The Know Your Chicago Symposium is the official beginning to the annual tour series, bringing together five prestigious speakers. The speakers will address important issues related to the season’s tours, the subjects of which are constructing the city’s new parks; the history and future of public housing; the role and struggle of transgender individuals and trans-friendly resources; the contributions of the Haitian community to Chicago and recontextualizing vodou; and the bustling film scene in Chicago. Regardless of whether you participate in the tours, we’re sure you’ll find today’s presentations interesting and thought-provoking.

Meet the 2014 Symposium Speakers

Ms. Bachrach earned her M.S. in Landscape Architecture-Historic Preservation from the University of Wisconsin at Madison, and she is an expert on Frederick Law Olmsted, Jens Jensen and Alfred Caldwell.

Alexander Polikoff has served as lead counsel in the landmark Gautreaux public housing litigation for more than 40 years. Alex joined BPI one year after its founding in 1970 as Executive Director, a position he held for almost 30 years. Previously, he was a member of the Chicago law firm Schiff Hardin & Waite (now Schiff Hardin LLP). He holds a BA and MA in English Language and Literature and a JD from the University of Chicago. He is the author of three books, The Path Still Open: A Greater Chance for Housing the Poor: The Case for Heroism (2006), and Housing the Poor: The Case for Heroism (1978).

The Honorable Lionel Jean-Baptiste was born in Haiti and moved with his family to Evanston at the age of 14. Prior to his appointment to the Circuit Court of Cook County in 2011, Judge Jean-Baptiste practiced law for 20 years and served as an Alderman in Evanston City Council for 10 years. He graduated from Evanston Township High School in 1970 where he was President of the Student Council, and from Princeton University (political science, 1974). He received a law degree from Chicago-Kent Law School in 1990.

A respected leader in the Chicago Haitian community, he founded the Haitian Congress to Fortify Haiti, the Haitian Relief Fund of Illinois, and the Haitian American Lawyers Association of Illinois. He and his wife of 38 years, Lenore, have three children and three grandchildren.

Christina Kahrl is a Chicago-based sports journalist who works for ESPN.com as a national MLB editor and writer, and is a member of the Baseball Writers Association of America. She has also contributed features on trans issues to Cosmo.com, Playboy.com, and the Windy City Times. She has worked on issues of public accommodations, healthcare, and police policy in Chicago and Illinois, has served on the board of Equality Illinois, and currently serves on the board of GLAAD and the leadership council of the LGBT Sports Coalition. In 2013, she was elected into the inaugural class of the Gay and Lesbian Sports Hall of Fame.

Our Founder

Mary Ward Wolkonsky (1907-2002) was an extraordinary woman who made a major and lasting contribution to the educational and philanthropic world of Chicago. Throughout her long life, she offered her talents in a multitude of ways, focusing particularly on issues and organizations that advanced the role of woman.

Mrs. Wolkonsky loved Chicago. In 1948, she founded Know Your Chicago, not only as a way to share her excitement about our city, but also to educate women for civic participation. Over its long history, Know Your Chicago has enabled thousands to experience the unique, the serious, the humorous, the beautiful and, often, the little-known aspects of this wonderful city.

Born in Michigan, Mrs. Wolkonsky moved to Chicago in 1939 and quickly became involved in the life of the city. Her remarkable intelligence, charm, and leadership abilities made her an asset to many of the area’s leading institutions including the University of Chicago. This affiliation was a source of particular pride to her. She founded the Women’s Board of the University, served as its chairman for eight years, and in 1975 she was named a University trustee.

Music was one of Mrs. Wolkonsky’s great interests. She was an excellent pianist, both classical and jazz; knew the lyrics of an amazing number of cabaret songs; and, even in her 90s, was always ready to put on her dancing shoes. She followed the careers of many of the great jazz ensembles of Chicago, often visiting the clubs where they played. This love of music led to her long involvement with the University of Chicago’s music program where she served as chairman of the Visiting Committee to the Department of Music and founded the Jazz Archive.

Mrs. Wolkonsky also founded Bright New City, a series of lectures and seminars on the physical and cultural aspects of Chicago. She was a member of the Board of Directors of the Lyric Opera and was instrumental in creating its Women’s Board. She served on the boards of the Chicago Public Library Foundation, the Chicago Symphony, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Field Museum, the Chicago Art Institute, and Planned Parenthood. Her numerous awards and honors are a testament to the vision and character of Know Your Chicago’s founder, Mary Ward Wolkonsky.
