This series, designed to educate both men and women for civic leadership, now beginning its thirteenth year, is sponsored by the Woman's College Board and the University of Chicago Downtown Center. In cooperation with the Chicago Associated Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the Chicago Crime Commission, the Junior League of Chicago, the League of Women Voters of Chicago, the Metropolitan Housing and Planning Council, and the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago, Chicago is the hub of America. A constant stream of people and ideas radiates from the Metropolis. This year "Know Your Chicago" will explore the people, places, and activities that make Chicago—The Crossroads.

Each trip is offered to two lecture-series ticket-holders, with no indication of preferred date. The cost of transportation, ranging from $1.50 to $5.00, is not included in the tour price. Each cost will be collected on the day of the trip. There are no refunds on field-trip tickets.

Sept. 26 (Tues.)

4:00 P.M. at Assembly at 64 East Lake Street. The tour will proceed by bus to River Park for a short lecture on the history and operation of the River Park, followed by a "behind the scenes" tour of the art gallery and the kitchens. The group will then go by bus to Carson Pirie Scott and Company for luncheon at Heath House ($2.25), followed by a brief tour of their main department store. In the afternoon, the group will proceed to the old Auditorium theater, then to the Pick-Congress Hotel to view the renovation of one of Chicago's oldest home-owned hotels, as well as the management and internal operations of a large metropolitan hotel.

Oct. 18 (Wed.)

9:00 A.M. at Assembly at 64 East Lake Street. The tour will proceed by bus to Navy Pier for a walk along the observation deck overlooking the cargo loading and unloading dock. Buses will then take the group to Gattelman Harbor, where the group will proceed to The Sherman Athletic Club ($2.50) in the harbor vicinity. The tour will then proceed to the loading docks and imports on the docks and warehouses, the loading operations at the grain elevator, and the construction in progress for the new lakefront.

Oct. 24 (Tues.)

8:45 A.M. at Assembly at 64 East Lake Street in Room 201 for a short lecture by St. Clair Drake, Professor of Sociology, Northwestern University. A bus tour of neighborhoods of new residents will be given under the guidance of Mrs. Margaret S. Maddox of The Mayor's Committee on Human Relations. Luncheon will be served at the National Club ($3.00). The afternoon will include a visit to the W. C. Green School, where the principal will speak to the group, and a tour of The McCormick Boys Club conducted by the Director. Return to 64 East Lake Street.

Nov. 7 (Tues.)

9:00 A.M. at Assembly at 116 South Michigan Avenue, in the Woodrow Wilson Building (22nd Floor) to view representatives of The Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, the International Center of Chicago, the Institute of International Education, and the Experiment in International Living. The group will then proceed by bus to two cinemas for students at the University of Chicago. Luncheon will be served at the International House, with foreign students as guests, and a tour of the House will follow. The group will then assemble in the Court Room of the new University of Chicago Law School building to hear representatives of some agents involved in The Public Administration Clearing House describe their work with foreign governmental representatives. The tour will be served on the 9th Floor on Thursday, November 3, at the Alliance Francaise, with Jean Reid, French Consul General as special guest, and November 8 at The English Speaking Union, with Kenneth Lake of the British Embassy, Washington, D.C., as special guest. Return to 64 East Lake Street.

Nov. 20 (Mon.)

8:45 A.M. at Assembly at 64 East Lake Street in Room 201 to view a short, impromptu art film presented by Mr. Robin Pearson, Director of the Fine Arts Program at University College. The tour will then proceed by bus to The Harris Bank and Trust Company, where the group will view an example of the new international style of architecture grafted onto an old building. Following a visit to the offices of the various companies, the group will go to the Mercantile Mart to view the show rooms of Herman Miller and Knoll Associates. Luncheon will be served at the Merchants and Manufacturers Club, and at the Metropole Restaurant, where the group will view the show rooms of Hermann Miller and Knoll Associates. UNIVERSITY COLLEGE is the adult educational branch of the University of Chicago. Its Downtown Center, now located at 64 East Lake Street, makes available to the intelligent, concerned adult in the Chicago area the intellectual resources of the University. It offers credit courses in more than forty fields and special non-credit programs of liberal and professional education. Among the latter are the Basic Program of Liberal Education for Adults, the Fine Arts Program, the Center for Programs in the Mass Media, the Center for Government Administration, the Office of Special Services to Business and Industry, and a series of Special Courses, including seminars, workshops, and tours. All these programs are described in detail in the new 1961-62 Annual Prospectus catalogue, which is available on request from the Downtown Center, 64 East Lake Street, Financial 6-8300.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE BOARD of Chicago, established in 1933, is a non-profit organization serving thirty liberal arts colleges and their local alumni. It is a co-sponsor of the "Know Your Chicago" series, an associate member of the Chicago Educational Television Association, and a sponsor of radio programs by member colleges. Other services include free college counseling for high school girls and publication of an Alumnae Club Guide and a Handbook of Information about member colleges. Admissions conferences are arranged with college representatives, and placement counseling is provided. Headquarters for all these services are in Room 1801, 30 North Michigan Avenue, Andover 3-4981.
