Know Your Chicago

"Let the people know and they will judge wisely." — John Locke

BARNARD

This series, designed to educate both men and women for civic leadership, now beginning its fourteenth year, is sponsored by the Woman's College Board and the University of Chicago Downtown Center in cooperation with the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, the Chicago Crime Commission, the Junior League of Chicago, the League of Women Voters of Chicago, the Metropolitan Housing and Planning Council, and the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago.

This year, the "Know Your Chicago" Committee presents a program which will examine certain major nationwide problems, their proposed legislative cures, and their relation to the Chicago Community. To disclose their current impact upon our local scene, the series will explore:

Field Trips

The field trips are designed to complement a particular lecture in the lecture series and are held in the week following that lecture. Tickets for field trips are available only to lecture-series ticket-holders. Registration is limited by capacity of buses and places to be visited. Each trip is offered on a first-come, first-served basis. Please indicate preferred date. The cost of luncheons, ranging from $1.50 to $2.50, is not included in the tour price. Costs also will be collected on the day of the trip. There are no refunds on field-trip tickets.

A complete schedule and description of field trips will be mailed to all ticket-holders. In general, trips are scheduled to leave at 8:45 A.M. to 9:00 A.M.

Field Trips:

September 23

9:00 A.M. Assemble at 64 East Lake Street. The tour will proceed by bus to the Tinley Park Metropolitan Hospital. Upon arrival one-half of the group will tour the hospital, while the other half of the group meets with members of the hospital staff for a discussion of hospital finances and programs in the area of psychotherapy, occupational therapy, etc. The group then will proceed to the Oak Forest Infirmary, thereupon to the University of Chicago Medical Center. Luncheon will be served in the hospital cafeteria. The group will return to the hotel, where the next lecture will be presented at 1:45 P.M.

October 9

9:00 A.M. Assemble at 64 East Lake Street. The tour will proceed by bus to the Bell & Howell Company, which markets a large line of business equipment and film equipment. The tour includes a brief lecture by Mr. Charles H. Perry, chairman of the Board of Directors of Bell & Howell. The group then will proceed to the plant for a tour demonstrating the complicated efforts of the liberalization of our trade policy on this industry. The buses will take the group to the Old Orchard Shopping Center, where tours of the factory will be free to lunch at restaurants of their choice. The tour will return at 1:45 P.M. and proceed to G. D. Searle & Company to view the automated processes involved in the manufacture of pharmaceuticals. Return to 64 East Lake Street.

 Plenty of room for more

October 23

9:30 A.M. Assemble in the Appellate Courtroom on the 21st floor of the 10 North Michigan Avenue Building to hear the oral argument of a case before the Appellate Court of the First District of Illinois. At the conclusion of the hearing (about 11:30) tour members will be free to lunch at restaurants of their choice. The tour will reconvene at 1:45 and will be divided into two groups. Group 1 will meet at the bar maintained in the Clerk and Register of the Cook County Building on the 4th floor of the County Building, Clark and Randolph. Each group will visit the Municipal and Criminal Courts, and at the Family Court will be privileged to be present at a hearing.

November 7

8:45 A.M. Assemble at 64 East Lake Street and proceed by bus, accompanied by guides from the Board of Education, to the Byrd School. After a brief orientation the group will visit the classrooms to view the modern facilities available for educating the visually impaired school and to see the closed-circuit TV in operation. The group will then visit the normal school for a brief lecture on the normal health and learning project sponsored by the World Vision Foundation. Lunch at the School (11:30) will be served at the Dunbar Vocational School. After lunch the group will meet the principal and tour the school to view the facilities of this widely known institution. Miss Louis G. Dugherthy, Superintendent of District 11, will address the group about the various work-study projects under way at the Dunbar School. The group will then proceed by bus to view the facilities of the nearby Dunbar Vocational School. Return to 64 East Lake Street.

November 19

9:00 A.M. Assemble at the Midway Airport Terminal at 120 South La Salle Street to tour the world's largest airport. You'll see the dirigible and data processing machines and learn about their capabilities and implications. After a trip to the floor of the Exchange, proceed by bus to the Johnson & Company to tour their stockroom and see the central computer, and then to the Suthe and Suthe Room of the Stockyards Inn ($2.00). Following lunch, proceed by bus to the Rockwell Betsiery to see completely automatic manufacturing processes. Return to 64 East Lake Street.

THE DOWNTOWN CENTER, located at 64 East Lake Street, is a part of the Extension Division of the University of Chicago. It makes the intellectual resources of the University available to the intelligent, concerned adult in the Chicago area by offering special non-credit programs of liberal and professional education. Among the latter are the Basic Program of Liberal Education for Adults, the Fine Arts Program, the Leadership Training Consultation Center, and a series of Special Courses, including seminars, workshops, and tours. All these programs are described in detail in the new 1962-63 Annual Prospectus, which is available on request from the Downtown Center, 64 East Lake Street, Financial 6-8300.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE BOARD of Chicago, established in 1933, is a non-profit organization serving thirty liberal arts colleges and their local alumniae. It is a co-sponsor of the "Know Your Chicago" series, an associate member of the Chicago Educational Television Association, and a sponsor of radio programs by member colleges. Other services include free college counseling for high school girls and publication of an Alumnae Club Guide and a Handbook of Information about member colleges. Admissions conferences are arranged with college representatives, and placement counseling is provided. Headquarters for all these services are in Room 1801, 30 North Michigan Avenue, ANdover 3-4981.
